Numb. 1956

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday August 14. to Monday August 18. 1684.

Genoua, August 5.

THE Spaniſh and Genoueſe Gallies are now here 37 in number; but it's ſaid they will ſail again to morrow; their firſt buſineſs being to carry a Governor to Corſica. The 31. paſt ſailed from hence the Tyger Frigat with the Crown and Lion Merchant Ships under her Convoy for the Coaſt of Spain, and the next day the Mariland Merchant for the Morea.

Madrid, Auguſt 3. They write from Barcelona that the French Fleet commanded by Monſieur du Queſne, had appeared off of that place, but had not ſtaid long upon that Coaſt; and ſince we have advice that the ſaid Fleet hath been met returning towards Provence. The Mareſchal de Belfonds had left the Neighborhood of Roſes, and had put his Troops into Quarters of Refreſhment; and the Duke of Bournonville was encamped, according to the laſt account we had, about a league on this ſide Campredon. The Duke de Medina Celi, the Firſt Miniſter, is going to the Bath at Salſedon, 18 miles from hence. The Duke d'Oſſuna has leave to come hither from the Caſtle of Montanches, and to ſtay here 20 days, after which he is to go to a Houſe he has about 30 miles off.

Vienna, Auguſt 10. The 8th Inſtant arrived here an Expreſs from the Imperial Army before Buda, being ſent by the Duke of Lorrain to demand a ſpeedy ſupply of Bombs Grenadoes, &c. By this Expreſs we have an account, that on the Firſt Inſtant in the night the Beſieged made a great Sally, but that after a long and ſharp Fight they were repulſed with great loſs, the Chriſtians having not only maintained their Poſts, but taken a Work the Enemy had caſt up near the Wall of the Town: In this action 200 of the Imperialiſts were killed, among whom were the Sieur Cavallieri Lieutenant-Colonel of the Regiment of Grana, and the Marquis Bagni; and the Count de Scherfenberg Major-General, and the Marquis de Parella, with ſeveral other Officers were wounded; That the next day at noon the Turks made another Sally, but preſently retired again; That the Beſiegers continued to batter the Town with their Bombs and Cannon; That they had already made a great breach in the Wall of the Town, and that in two or three days all their Mines would be ready, when the Duke of Lorrain ſeemed reſolved to make a general Aſſault; and in the mean time had ſummoned the Enemy to ſurrender the place, letting them know, that if they ſuffered things to come to the laſt extremity, they muſt not expect any Quarter; In anſwer to which, it's ſaid, the Baſſa of Buda told the Officer the Duke of Lorrain ſent into the Town, (having firſt cauſed the Heads of 40 Chriſtian Slaves to be cut off in his preſence) That he would neither give or expect any Quarter. This morning parted from hence ſeveral Veſſels laden with Ammunition for the Imperial Army.

Lintz, Auguſt 12. We have Letters from the Imperial Camp of the Second Inſtant which tell us, that the day before the Turks made a very deſperate Sally, and preſſed very hard upon the Chriſtians who had the Guard of the Trenches, but theſe being ſupported by the Troops who were poſted neareſt to them, beat back the Turks with a great ſlaughter, having on their ſide loſt about 200 Men and ſeveral Officers; The Letters add that General Leſlie had paſſed the Drave, and was on his march with the Forces under his command to joyn the Imperial Army, which it's ſaid is very much weakened, and particularly that they want Foot; on the other hand the Turks in Buda, and eſpecially the Officers, will not hear of ſurrendring the place, but appear reſolved to defend it to the laſt.

Ratisbone, Auguſt 17. In our laſt we gave you an account, that the Treaty of Truce between France and Spain was Signed here the 10th Inſtant; and now may tell you, that that between the Emperor and the Empire and his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty will be Signed to day or to morrow. The news from Hungary is, That the Turks in Buda made the Firſt Inſtant at the entrance of the night, a very great Sally, and that there was a very ſharp Fight between them and the Chriſtians, in which the latter loſt 200 Men and had ſeveral Officers killed and wounded; but that nevertheleſs they made themſelves Maſters of an advantageous Poſt near the Breach in the Stone Wall of the Town. That the Duke of Lorrain had ſent an Officer with two Turkiſh Priſoners, to Summon the Turks to ſurrender the place, but that the Viſier of Buda had cauſed 40 Chriſtians to be Beheaded in the preſence of the ſaid Officer, telling him he would ſerve the whole Chriſtian Army ſo if he had it in his power. They write from Cracow of the 29th of July, that the Poles and Coſſacks had again defeated ſeveral thouſand Tartars, and had killed a great many of them. The King of Poland was, when theſe Letters were written, at Leopold, near the Frontiers of Podolia.

Francfort, Auguſt 16. The Imperial Regiments that have their Quarters in the Empire, are ordered for Hungary; whither we are told the Elector of Bavaria is likewiſe marching with greateſt part of his Army. According to our laſt advices from Hungary the Turks in Buda made a very ſtout reſiſtance, and gave the Chriſtians frequent Alarms with their Sallies; they made one the Firſt Inſtant, in which the Imperialiſts loſt ſeveral Officers and near 200 common Soldiers, but the Turks were repulſed with a far greater loſs on their ſide: The Duke of Lorrain had given Orders for the preparing all things for a general Aſſault, which it's believed will be made ſo ſoon as Count Leſlie hath joyned his Highneſs.

Cologne, Auguſt 18. All the Troops of our Elector are decamped from the Neighborhood of Zons, and are marched towards the River Erp, which they will paſs at Gutorf, and ſo continue their march towards Liege. From Strasburgh they write, that they were expecting there the Mareſchal de Schomberg.

Bruſſels, Auguſt 22. We have advice that the Elector of Cologne's Forces are arrived in the Neighborhood of Liege; and we expect in few days to hear that City is Beſieged; if they do not make their Submiſſion to his Electoral Highneſs their Prince. There are Letters of the 17th inſtant from

Franc-